

The Emperor's New Clothes

Part 2

The crooks showed the emperor the cloth. But the emperor was shocked because he could not see the cloth at all.

He said he saw the cloth! Haha!

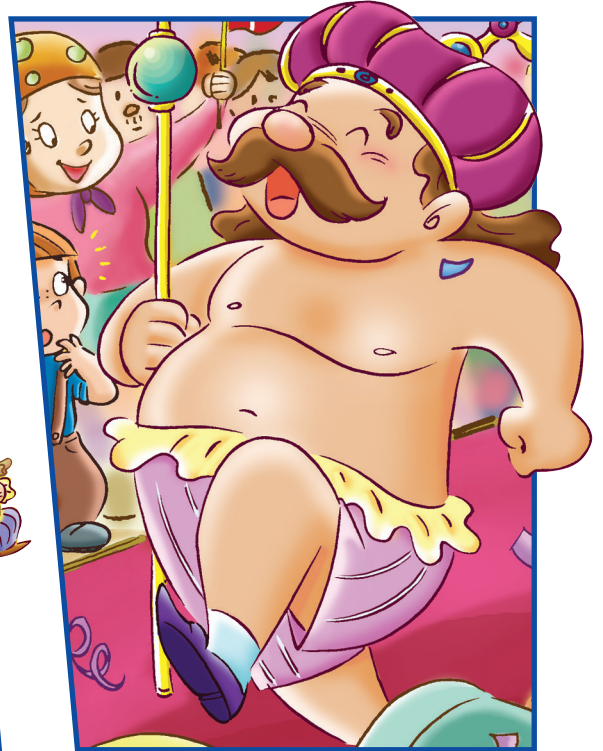

He remembered what the crooks said. He did not want anyone to think he was silly, so he pretended to see the cloth.

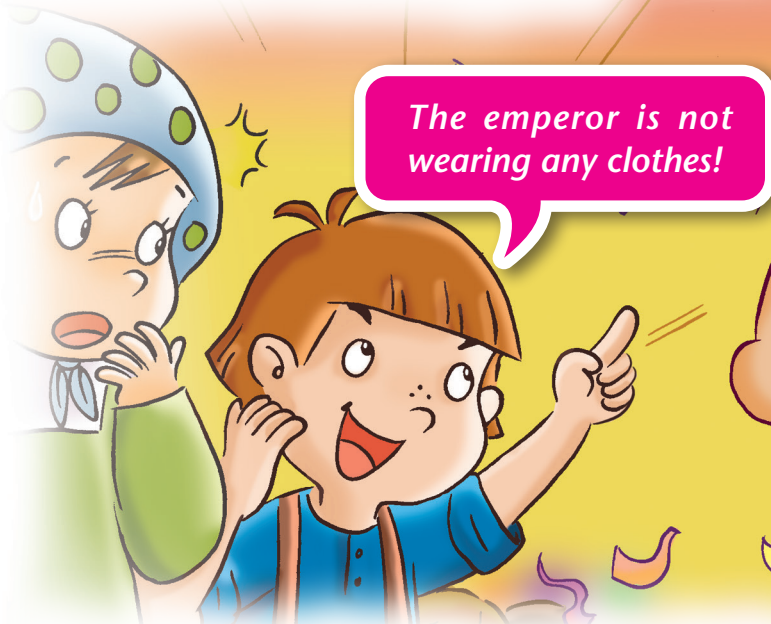

The next day, the crooks gave the invisible suit to the emperor and left with the gold.

That day, the emperor wore his new suit.

His people did not see his new suit, but they praised the emperor and said his new suit was beautiful. Then a boy yelled.

The emperor realized this was true, but he was a proud man. He wore his invisible suit anyway, with his head held high.

The End