

The Money Bag

Part 2

The poor man did as he was told and took out one gold coin from the bag each day.

We'll never be hungry again!

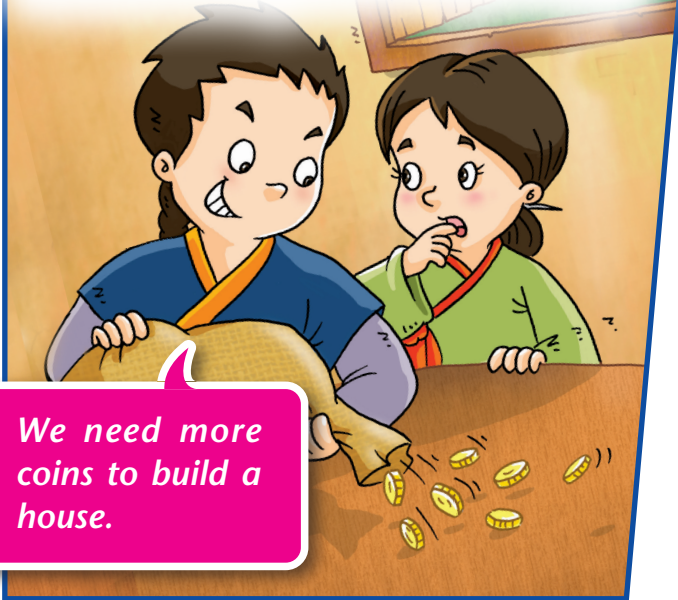

They only bought food with the coin and saved the rest.

We've saved enough to buy an ox.

I want a large house.

But the man soon grew greedy. He ignored what the giant had told him and took many coins from the bag.

We need more coins to build a house.

When the house was built, no more coins would fall out of the bag.

Worse yet, the next morning, the couple woke up in their old, shabby hut.

Our big house is gone!

Don't be sad. At least we have this ox! And you learned not to be greedy.

From then on, the man lived a simple and honest life.

The End