Mont-Tremblant

Nestled in the Laurentian Mountains in Quebec, Mont-Tremblant is a colourful village best known for its ski resort, but did you know that it also has everything that makes for an unforgettable summer vacation?

Take a gondola to the summit of Mont-Tremblant to enjoy the magnificent scenery of the Laurentians and marvel at the view of Lac Tremblant as it glitters under the summer sun. Then have a gleefully thrilling experience by careering down a 1.4-kilometre-long luge course on a three-wheel cart. Let the thrills go on by experimenting with gravity-defying acrobatic movements and somersaults as you jump to the height of ten metres above the ground on the Eurobungy-Trampoline. If climbing is what you crave, test your skills on the 30-foot high Climbing Tower or challenge the natural cliff near the gondolas that take you up to the peak.

With the multitude of activities offered here, including rafting, fishing, kayaking, horseback riding, and minigolfing (just to name a few), Mont-Tremblant is sure to leave you no time for boredom.

Are you ready for the unprecedented summer fun and excitement at Mont-Tremblant?
